REPORT

OF

GRAND CONCLAVE OF ENGLAND AND WALES.

14th May, 1858.

THE account of the Grand Treasurer, published and circulated with this Report, together with the List of Grand Officers of Grand Conclave, and that of the Provincial Grand Commanders, shew the steady and satisfactory advancement of the Order. Sharing in the universal sympathy felt for our countrymen and countrywomen who so severely suffered from the revolt in India, the Grand Conclave of England and Wales, sanctioned the grant of Fifty Guineas to the Indian Mutiny Relief Fund, and this feeling was manifested in the Provinces and in Encampments, which it is proper to record here, as having passed through the hands of the Grand Chancellor, viz,—Province of Somersetshire, 5*l.* 5*s.*; Province of Dorsetshire, 8*l.*; Province of Lancashire, 20*l.* 10*s.*; Bladud Encampment, Bath, 2*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.*; Tynte Encampment, Taunton, 2*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.*; Richard de Vernon Encampment, Dudley, Worcester, 5*l.*; Jacques de Molay Encampment, Liverpool, 10*l.* 10*s.*; Beauceant Encampment, Handsworth, 5*l.* 5*s.*; Godfroi de Bouillon Encampment, Stoke-on-Trent, 5*l.*; Royal Naval Encampment, Portsmouth, 5*l.*; Royal Kent Encampment, Newcastle-on-Tyne, 3*l.* 3*s.*; Kemeys Tynte Encampment, Blackheath, Kent, 4*l.* 2*s.*; Observance Encampment, London, 10*l.* 10*s.*; St. George (late Cross of Christ), London, 10*l.* 10*s.*; Faith and Fidelity, London, 5*l.* 5*s.*; Cœur de Lion, Oxford, 3*l.*; Almeric de St. Maur and Geoffrey de St. Omer, Bolton, 3*l.* 3*s.*; Richard Cœur de Lion, London, Canada West, 1*l.* 18*s.*; and Union, or Rougemont, Exeter; Temple Crossing, Colchester; Prudence, Ipswich, and several other Encampments merged their respective Contributions into the Masonic Collections for the same Fund, in their respective localities.

In addition to the above-named contributions, there has been the sum of £5 5*s.* dispensed in this country by the Grand Almoner in aid of deserving cases, and a further amount of £18 8*s.* 10*d.* has been recommended by the Committee for dispensation by the Grand Almoner in like manner.

The Committee, after careful consideration, looking to the desire expressed in the Colonies and other districts, recommend the following alterations to be made in the Statutes of the Order, viz.:—in page 27, section 3, third line, the word six to be altered to four, and in line 7, same section and page, the word five to be altered to four; in page 44, section 2, lines 3 and 4, the words, “taking rank above the Grand Chamberlain” to be struck out, and page 45, lines 1 and 2, the same words to be struck out, as more conformable to the practice observed in Grand Lodge of England and Wales.

The Committee having recommended the appointment of Sir Knight James Alexander Henderson, of Hugh De Payens Encampment, Canada West, and Grand Sub-Prior of Grand Conclave of England, to be its representative in the Grand Encampment of the United States, which was duly sanctioned by the Most Eminent and Supreme Grand Master, are much gratified in being able to embrace in this Report the reply of the Most Eminent Grand Master of the Grand Encampment of the United States, under date the 28th of March last, in these words:—
 “I cordially appreciate the fraternal act of appointing a representative in your behalf to the Grand Encampment of the “United States. This is the supreme and governing body, and “ meets every three years,—the next meeting being in Chicago,

 “ state of Illinois, in September, 1859.

“ As your next Grand Conclave will meet in May next, and “ there will not be time enough to forward a formal appointment
 “ with the necessary Seals and Certificate, you (the Grand “ Chancellor) will do me the favour to waive the irregularity of
 “ the Seal and Certificate of our Grand Recorder, and accept this “ as your official appointment as the representative of the under“ signed, to the Grand Conclave of England and Wales, and in “ so doing very much oblige me officially, and on behalf of our “ Grand Encampment of the United States.

“ Be so good as to tender to your venerable, highly distin“ guished, and Supreme Grand Master, my most profound and “ fraternal regards: and to the Officers and Members of your “ Supreme Grand Conclave my knightly esteem and respect, and
 “ for yourself (G.C.) accept the same from your Christian Bonds-
 “ man and Frater.

“ † W. B. HUBBARD, G.M.”

In a previous portion of this communication which may be quoted, are the following observations—

“ At an early period, I investigated the claims or evidences for
 “ the Chief Government of Templars in England, and as you are “ aware, decided in favour of your Grand Conclave, and have “ heretofore so favoured and authorised fraternal intercourse
 “ between our United States Templars and yours in England and “ Wales and the Canadas, that no danger now exists of any “ hostile impression being made by the Baldwin or other ir“ regular Encampment within your jurisdiction. Before the “ receipt of your (G.C.) letter of the 26th ultimo, a circular from “ the Baldwin Encampment was sent me from one of our 32 of “ Philo. I immediately replied with notes shewing that they “ were living and assuming authority, in violation of their vows
 “ and fealty to the Grand Conclave of England and Wales. It
 “ can make no impression except unfavourable to its authors
 “ within our jurisdiction.”

The proceedings of the Grand Conclave in reference to the Baldwin Encampment of Bristol, are as follows:—

In December, 1856, Fr. D. W. Nash signified to the Grand Chancellor his wish to retire from masonic office, but before doing so, offered his mediation to bring the Baldwin and Antiquity Encampments under the Banner of the Grand Conclave of England and Wales, hitherto restrained, owing to a difference with the Bladud Encampment, Bath. Both the G. C. and G. V. C. gave every facility, and the Most E. and S. Grand Master, from these representations, was disposed to acquiesce. On receiving the usual official application in writing; this was duly communicated to him by the G. V. C., and a reply was expected before printing and issuing the annual report, dated 8th May, 1857. Before this was put in the press, the Rev. Grand Commander for Worcester communicated to the Grand Chancellor, that Fr. D. W. Nash had granted a warrant, on his own assumed authority, for an Encampment to be held at Birmingham; this communication led to a caution being printed, conspicuously in red on the Annual Report, and (with this special caution the said Annual Report was sent to every Encampment, holding under Grand Conclave, in England, Wales, and the Colonies. This assumption of authority being further promulgated and acted upon, as shewn in a printed circular letter, issued by the said Fr. D. W. Nash, it becomes incumbent on the Grand Conclave of England also to shew to the Order of Knights Templar that Baldwin Encampment was a Member of the old Grand Conclave of England and Wales in the time of the Duke of Kent, which is thus admitted in Fr. D. W. Nash's own words, in his letter to the present Grand Chancellor, dated Cheltenham the 6th December, 1856:—"The Encampment of Baldwin is one of the oldest Encampments in England, and like that of Observance has always been entitled, 'from Time Immemorial' without a number. It was a Member of the old Grand Conclave in the time of the Duke of Kent." His late Royal Highness, Edward, Duke of Kent, by Letters Patent or Warrant, under seal, dated 10th April, 1809, after the death of Sir Knight Thomas Dunkerly, formerly M. E. and S. G. Master, and whilst Sir Waller Rodwell Wright was M. E. and S. Grand Master, became Royal Grand Patron of Grand Conclave of England and Wales for life, as the Statutes and Charter with List of Encampments, declaring Fealty to it, then printed, shew, and which includes Baldwin Encampment.* A former Charter, dated March, 1804, states that the Ancient Grand Conclave had for many years been suspended, owing to the death and dispersion of many of its members. The Duke of Kent and the Duke of Sussex had been duly Installed Knights Templar in the Encampment of Observance, London, of Seven Degrees. When the Duke of Sussex became M. E. and S. Grand Master of the Order, a conference was held and measures successfully taken, effectually to establish the Fealty of the Knights Templar, and to exempt them from the ban held over the then dangerous Secret Societies, and his sway over the Order, while his health permitted, was most beneficial. After his death application was made to the friend of His late Royal Highness the Duke of Sussex and Executor to his last Will, Colonel Charles Kemys Feney's Tyne, also a Member of the Encampment of Observance of London, to become the Most Emirent and Supreme Grand Master, which, fortunately for the lasting benefit of the Order, he complied with, and there was no dissentient Members of the several old Encampments at his Elevation and Installation.

The course thus taken leaves to the Grand Conclave, as regards Baldwin Encampment, and those Encampments, which it has illegally assumed the power of creating, no other alternative than that of placing it, and them, and all who belong thereto, under the ban of exclusion, to be dealt with now and hereafter, by that Masonic law, which draws the proper level and distinction between the deceiving and the deceived, so that judgment may be always tempered with mercy.

* With the Statutes then printed, Antiquity Encampment, Bath, is mentioned as having ceased to exist.

Finally, the Grand Chancellor has intimated to Grand Conclave, that as the Ritual it has adopted has received the marked approval, and accordance of Knights Templars, in confraternity throughout the Christian World, he has in preparation a System of Examination in Sections with Lecture, in strict accordance with the said Ritual and Masonic History of the Order, which, under due obligation, he will have the pleasure of dedicating to the Most Eminent and Supreme Grand Master, as a mark of his homage and respect, to be accessible, through Provincial Grand Commanders and Eminent Commanders, under his own Sign Manual, and with such caution and regulation as to the expense, as the Grand Conclave may determine, and whatever surplus may accrue therefrom shall be devoted to the Funds of the Grand Conclave.

Eminent Commanders are requested carefully to examine the foregoing List, and to communicate any errors or omissions in it to the Grand Chancellor. They are requested to state the numbers (if any) of their Encampments, and by whom the Warrants for them were granted. This is requested in order to enable the Grand Chancellor to circulate a correct and more perfect account of Encampments. The Grand Chancellor will feel obliged by any other information respecting Encampments, and the Warrants for them, which may be considered interesting.

Encampments take precedence according to the Dates of their Warrants; but the Grand Master is empowered, in Warrants of Confirmation, to direct that Encampments shall take precedence from some other time.—See Statutes, p. 43, par. 4. See also in this subject the Resolution, p. 4, ante.

In the foregoing List Encampments are arranged alphabetically, being more convenient for reference.
