FELTHAM,

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 7TH, 1885.

Bro. T. I. BIRD, P.P.G. Swd. Br. Middx.,

Worshipful Master.

"All men can't be Masters."

"Where content is, there's a feast."

HINTS FOR THE TABLE.

"Most hunger shortest Grace."

"He that will find fault with the Soup maketh but a sorry guest."

"First catch the Fish before thou mak'st the Sauce."

"If you run after two Hares you will catch neither."

"Capons were at first but Chickens."

"Come Weal, come woe, if digestion be but slow."

"You to the Cabbage, I to the Beef."

"When the Nutt is going, it is good to take a slice."

"His Tongue goes but never speeds."

"As the Cock grows so crows the young."

"Do not find fault with a fat Goose."

"Game is cheaper in the market than in the fields and woods."

"Stewards are fools if they invite the Hawk to dinner."

"All sorts of Sweets, are not wholesome."

"Bread with eyes, Cheese without eyes, and Wine that leaps up to the eyes."

"He that sups on Salad goes not to bed fasting."

"Desert and reward very often go not together."

"Eat at pleasure."

"Drink in measure."

"Drink wine and have the gout, drink none and have it too."

"He that first came is not sure to be first served."

"Better say nothing than nothing to the purpose."
