OBSERVATIONS
ON THE PRESENT STATE OF MASONRY
IN Calcutta.

~~~~~
That we are great, that we are powerful, if we would act agreeably, who can doubt?"
CHARGE BY THOS. EDMONDES, ESQ.

A SHORT AND CONCISE ACCOUNT
OF THE RISE AND PROGRESS OF WHAT IS TERMED
Ancient and Modern
MASONRY,
TILL THE TIME OF THE UNION.

---

We grew together
Like to a double cherry being parted
But yet an Union in division.

TWELFTH NIGHT

AN ADDRESS TO THE BRETHREN OF THE

LODGE

---

ON A COPY OF THE OLD CHARGES TO THE CRAFT OF MASONS

At Large,

TOGETHER WITH ANNOTATIONS AND REMARKS ILLUSTRATIVE THEREOF.

---

It is not a proselyting system, it is not made up of plots and conspiracies against social order, it interferes with no other institution moral or religious, neither does it take any part in the disputes and broils which periodically agitate and enfeeble the ecclesiastical or political world."

Preface to Oliver's Antiquities of Masonry.

AN ADDRESS

Intended to have been delivered by a Master,

ON HIS

INSTALLATION,

IN THE YEAR 1822,

“And have not been ashamed”

“To hear themselves named,”

“As a free and an accepted Mason”

Entered Apprentices Song.
