My Dear Sir + Brothers.

I am at least 3 favours in your debt - a letter, Sir P. Brown book, & the reprint from the 'Winchester Journal'; which is very interesting. I am ashamed at my delay in thanking you for the two first, I have carefully noted the additional light the book throws upon your Constitution.

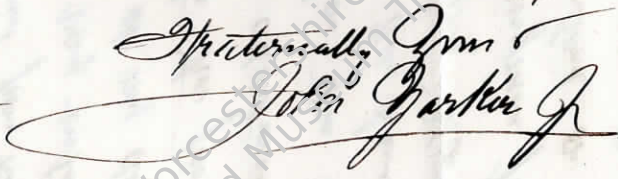

When you have disposed of your copy of my 'Memo', should you require anymore please let me know & I will send on anything you may require, my object being to elicit other information. Place what I have myself in the hands of those who will be able to use it for a similar purpose.

I have a many very Complimentary Letters -

I am expecting daily a letter from Edinburgh, which will enable me to arrange 'Prince Rodocanathos' imitation in the St Mary's Chapel Lady Edinburgh, where they will be able to give him the 3 degrees in one night. - The only way I can induce him to accept initiation. - I do not see the old Mage, but Dr.
Little informs me that some one of the name of 'Maire' is writing against his Red Cross Order, & I understand that the Edinburgh Chapter is likely to establish a Government of their own.

Can you help me to the Armorial of Etudholm Rodger, Stuld Marshall Aug 2nd 1796. ? Died in Old Burlington Street, London 1798 age 90 years.
We have in our family, Somewhere, a mass of law documents in regard to General Hays, but all the old members of the family being dead I do not know how best to get at them — Some being in Cumberland others in Westmoreland,

Respectfully,
Yours,
R. Wolf Esq.

P.S. — I see there are many 'Statesmen' of your name in my Native County. I take it to be identical with 'Wagh', — though the armorials evidently derive from Wolf —

I see from a work on Heraldry printed by Tho Robson, Sunderland, 1830, that "Abbe' Guistonianni, who entitled himself a Knight Grand Cross of the Order, asserted in 1692 at Venice that it was the most "ancient of all orders."

This refers to the order of Constantine.
