

My dear Sir & Brother,

I thank our friend Brother Wood for his friendly feelings towards me & assure him that I accept his advice as sound, and that I shall not fail to follow them & he may be sure that we shall never make the folly to ally our Order of Goodwill with the foolish Masonic one of the Red Cross in any way, and which we tolerate merely because with its pretence and its eusebism is useless, and unworthy of any notice whatever. You can communicate the letter to Mr Wood, whom please to thank again in my name & assure him of my gratitude.

Yours faithfully & fraternally.

I shall have a part appropriate reply to Historians in next week's Magazine. Second things make a copy.
Would you recommend the Office to print the history of the Order of Craftsmen under the name
"Compiled by request" of the Order of the Craftsmen
