

Dark Court House
Higher Level
13 June 1847

That a suitable alteration has been made in the Insignia of the Masonic Order in question so as to obviate any resemblance, which might arise from their recent close resemblance to those of the Order of

My dear Mr. Wood,

Many thanks for your letter of yesterday's date. Mr. Little promised in the name of Lord Bective and the Council of the Red Lip Order to alter the name & the Insignia, as far as they resemble those of the Chivalric Order, and in the letter which I wrote to him, acknow-ledging the Manifesto I said that, while expressing the gratification afforded me by the act, I feel it my duty to remind him, that in accordance with an existing understanding, I shall expect to learn as a suitable alteration has been made, The Insignia of the Masonic Order in question so as to obviate any mistakes which might arise from their present resemblance to those of the public Order of Honorary Knighthood, the Grand Mastership which is hereditary in my family - And trust that due publicity in the Masonic Op, may be given to the above mentioned and highly satisfactory decision of the Grand Sovereign of his Order &c &c &c. do not intend to accept any position in connection with the Order of the Op, unless they modify the Insignia, and make the name distinctive - I believe me to remain with anxious regard to that in My dear Mr. Wood Gamp understanding,

Rodriguez