THE THREE GRAND OFFERINGS.

First, the ready compliance of the Will of the Almighty in preparing his only son as a sacrifice to the common good. It pleased the Lord to choose a more agreeable victim in his stead. Secondly, for the many pious prayers of King David, who it pleased the Lord to stop the affliction upon the king's head.

SITUATED DUU T. & W.

Whereas we seriously contemplate upon the beautiful work of the creation, and all things therein and thereon contained, how many and cheerful might we be in adoring the great Creator and Governor of the universe, who, from the earliest period of time, hath never left himself without a living witness among men.
