

W Thomas Lloyd

The Members of the Masonic Order in Ireland having progress of the Order since the appointment to the Office of Deputy Grand Master Worshipful Brother John Fitzhenry Townsend, Esquire, 1808, in view of his high sense of the dignified and impartial, as well as wise and diligent manner in which he has conducted the business of the Craft and executed the Duties of his highly important Office, and that too during an unusually critical epoch in Masonic History.

With this view they contemplate presenting the Right Worshipful Brother with some solid mark of their esteem and respect, the intrinsic value of which, however great, will but inadequately the merits of the distinguished Brother whom it is intended to honor. £1 each.
