

REMARKS

ON THE

PRESENT AND FUTURE EXTERNAL ECONOMY

OF

THE MASONIC ORDER

IN IRELAND.

Engage people by their affections. Convince their reason. And they will acquiesce, on the only principle that can make acquiescence sincere, vigorous, or rational—a conviction that it is for good.—Erskine.

DUBLIN :

PRINTED BY BR. S. G. DOWNES, P. M., 53, BISHOP-STREET.

MDCCCLVI.