

TEWKESBURY, 8th APRIL, 1862.

DEAR SIR & BROTHER,

THURSDAY, the 24th day of APRIL instant, is appointed for

The Consecration
OF

AND THE

INSTALLATION OF THE RIGHT WORSHIPFUL MASTER, IN ANTIENT FORM.

The CEREMONIES will commence at the TOWN HALL, at TWO p.m. punctually. The R. W. Prov. G. MASTER, The Hon. JAMES F. L. DUTTON, &c., &c., specially authorised by The M. W. G. MASTER, will undertake the Ceremony of CONSECRATION, and The R. W. DEP. PROV. G. MASTER, GEORGE FREDERICK NEWMARCH, ESQ., &c., &c., will kindly undertake the Ceremony of the INSTALLATION.

The R. W. P. G. MASTER, and several PROV. G. Officers have promised to attend and participate in the duties of the day, and your presence on that occasion, with such of your Masonic connections as can make it convenient, will be esteemed an especial honor to the Lodge.

IN HONOR OF THE AUSPICIOUS OCCASION

THERE WILL BE

A Grand Masonic Ball,

(Under the most distinguished Patronage)

AT

THE TOWN HALL,

IN THE EVENING OF THE SAME DAY,

With the kind permission of His Worship the MAYOR,

SAMUEL HITCH, ESQ., M.D.

To commence at Nine o'clock.

Admission to the Ball, by Tickets only, not transferable, for Ladies or Gentlemen, 10s. 6d. each, including Refreshments, issued on application to BROTHER EDWARD GILLMAN, the Secretary to the Lodge, on or before the 21st instant

Gentlemen not of the Fraternity are invited to attend the BALL.

Ladies related to Brethren, solicited to wear any Masonic Emblem, Device, or Ornament, as a mark of distinction.

I am Dear Sir and Brother,

Your's faithfully and fraternally,

EGBERT S. COSSENS,

R. W. M. Designate.

The BANQUET will be held at the SWAN HOTEL, at 5 p.m. punctually. Tickets for the Banquet (including a Bottle of Wine, Dessert, and Attendance), price 10s. 6d., to be had of Bro. W. TROTMAN, at the Bar of the Hotel on or before the 21st inst.