

THE ALBERT ENCAMPMENT

Of the Royal, Exalted, Religious, and Military Order of Masonic Knights Templar, Hospitulars of Saint John of Jerusalem, Palestine, and Malta, in England and Wales, and the Colonial Dependencies of the British Crown.

SIR KNIGHT WILLIAM SCARLE,

Most Eminent and Supreme Grand Master

Under the Command of Sir Knight Simeon Rodds,

Very Eminent Grand Commander, Leicestershire.

Masonic Rooms, Ann-Street, Rochdale,

May 12th, 1863.

Encampment of Emergency.

SIR KNIGHT,

By Command of the Eminent Commander, Sir Knight
JOHN KNIGHT, you are hereby Summoned to attend the duties of the above Encampment, on Tuesday Next, the Nineteenth Instant, at Half past Five, p. m., prompt.

I remain, Dear Sir Knight,

Yours Fraternally,

William Henry Prince,
Registrar.

Business.

To Ballot for, and, if Elected, to Install.

Companion John Cocker, Chapter of Unity 375, Rochdale.
Surgeon, Blackpool.

Companion Samuel Bamber, Chapter of Unity, 375 Rochdale.
Jeweller, Blackpool.

To Install, if present.

Companion Fargreaves Wm, Chapter of Unity 375.

“ Thomas High, Chapter of Hope 62.

“ Edward Peck, “ “

“ William Partington, “ “

“ John Peck, “ “

“ James Stott, Chapter of Unity 375.

“ James Filton, Hapthali Chapter 333.

The Eminent Commander calls the attention of each Sir Knight to the following Extract from the Book of Statutes, Article 19, page 33, viz:

“ No Sir Knight shall be admitted into any Encampment but in the proper Costume of his rank in the Order.”