

THE Royal, Exalted, Religious and Military Order of Masonic Knights Templar, Hospitalers of St. John of Jerusalem, Palestine, Rhodes, and Malta, and the Mediterranean Pass, = under the Command of Sir Knight William Stuart, most Eminent and Supreme Grand Master.

Baldwyn Encampment stationed at Bristol from time immemorial
Sir Knight, C. N. Low, E. C.

SIR Knight, = You are hereby summoned to attend an Encampment of Emergency, at Freemasons' Hall, on Friday, the 10th day of June A.D. 1864, at Four o'clock p.m. precisely.

By Command,

J. D. Musgrove, Registrar.

Business.

TO receive the Most Eminent and Supreme Grand Master, Sir Knight William Stuart; the Very High and Eminent Deputy-Grand Master, Sir Knight Col. G. A. Vernon; the Very Eminent the Provincial Grand Commander, Sir Knight Samuel Bryant; and other Very Eminent Provincial Grand Commanders and Eminent Sir Knights.

To install the Very Eminent the Provincial Grand Commander.

To appoint and invest the Provincial Grand Officers.

To elect a Provincial Grand Treasurer.

To elect Provincial Grand Equeries.

To transact divers urgent and important business.

A Banquet

(TICKETS SEVEN AND SIXPENCE EACH - MEMBERS FREE)

Will be provided at the Montague Tavern, at Six o'clock precisely, at which all Sir Knights are invited to be present. — An early intimation stating whether you intend to Dine will oblige.