

MARK MASONRY.—The Grand Lodge of Mark Masters, under the English constitution, was held on the 23rd ult., at the Freemason's Tavern, Bro. W. Jones, P.S.J.W., presiding for the Grand Master, Lord Leigh, who was prevented, attending. The treasurer's report was read, and was highly satisfactory. Bro. Jones then announced that the Grand Master, since their last meeting, had appointed the Earl of Carnarvon to be Pro. G.M. of the Mark, for the County of Somerset, and Bro. W. Kelly, Pro. G. M. for that of Leicester. Lord Leigh was unanimously re-elected Grand Master, Bro Norton was re-elected treasurer, and the following brethren were appointed:—The Earl of Carnarvon, D.G.M.; Sir Edmund Lechmere, S.G.W.; Wyndham Portal, J.G.W.; Rev. G. R. Portal, F.W.; and the Rev. D. Wooley, grand chaplain; Collins, G. Secretary; Rev. W. Bowyer, S.G.D.; Ridgway, G. Rog.; Bradley, G.S.B.; Hadlow, G. Org.; and Jessie Turnour, G. Purs. Several matters were discussed for the good of Mark Masonry, and the lodge closed until the second Wednesday in December.
