

The petition of the letter II to the Inhabitants of Shrewsbury greeting:—

Whereas I have by you been driven From House, from Home, from State, from Heaven and plac'd by your most learn'd Society,
 In Exile, anguish, and anxiety,
 and used, without me just, preferred,
 With Oppression and Injustice;
 I here demand full restitution and beg you'll mend your elocation.

to this petition the Inhabitants of Shrewsbury return
 the following answer.

Whereas we've received you beguile!
 From Handcuffs, Horror, and from State,
 From Hill, from Horsepond, and from Halter
 and embraced you in Altar, and plac'd you where you neer shoud be In Honour and in Honesty;
 We deem you pray'r a null intrusion,
 and will not mend our elocation.
