

Copy of inscription on Cross in Hereford Cathedral beneath the "Tree Window" in two parts

The Window thus adorned with sacred devices representing the Church Militant and the Church Triumphant Is the offering of many hearts Specialy of the Chergy of his Archdeaconry and of his Brethren of the Ancient Order of Fremasons, and is designed to glorify God through Jesus Christ In honor paid to His faithful servant who in the diligent discharge of his Ministry and by his singular kindness and munificence for merited himself to the love of all and shed around him the light of a holy and consistent example.
