

Mount Calvary Encampment, or Early Grand Encampment of England
of the
Royal, Exalted, Religious and Military Order of Grand Elected
Masonic Knights Templar
of
Saint John of Jerusalem, Palestine, Rhodes and Malta,
In England and Wales and Colonial Dependancies of the British Crown.

Field of Encampment, 14, Bedford Row, Holborn.

551st Anniversary of the Martyrdom of Jacques de Molay, Grand Master of the Order of the Temple, 11th March, 1313.

With the express sanction, and approval of The Most Eminent and Supreme Grand Master,
SIR KNIGHT WILLIAM STEARNS, who has signified his intention to be present.

Eminent and Dear Sir Knight,

It is proposed to commemorate the above event on FRIDAY, the 11th proximo, at Seven o'clock in the evening, in a suitable and impressive manner; and the E. C., Officers, and Members of this Encampment trust that you and the Members of your Encampment will attend on the occasion, and assist in conducting the Ceremony, which will comprise appropriate Choral Accompaniments, and an original paper by the E. C.

SIR KNIGHT MATTHEW COOKE, G. O., will preside at the Organ.

Ladies (Members of Knight Templars' families) will be admitted by vouchers, to be obtained from the E. C., on written or personal application from a regularly-registered Knight Templar.

Knights are requested to appear in full Templar Costume, with a crape rosette on the sword-hilt, and on the jewel suspended from the collars of the Officers.

I am,

Eminent and Dear Sir Knight,

Yours in the Bonds of the Order,

FREDERICK BINCKES, E. C.

It is particularly requested that Knights purposing to attend will notify their intention not later than Wednesday the 9th proximo.