

IN MEMORIAM.

The Royals Lodge of Freemasons,

MALVERN, No. 1204

At a regular Meeting of the Royals Lodge of Freemasons, held at Malvern on Thursday the 19th day of September, 1872,

W. Bro. HENRY CROSS, P.G.J.D., W.M.

The lamented death of Brother the REV. GEORGE FISK, LL.B., Vicar of Malvern and Chaplain of this Lodge, having been referred to,

It was resolved unanimously on the motion of Wor. Bro. BROWN, P.M., P.P.G.W. of Worcestershire, seconded by Wor. Bro. CROSS, W.M., P.G.J.D. of Worcestershire.

"That this Lodge desires to condole with and tender to MRS. FISK its most sincere sympathy with her in that dispensation of Providence which has deprived her of a loving Husband, Masonry of one of its brightest ornaments, and this Lodge of one of its most consistent Members, its honored Chaplain; it rejoices and feels consolation in the knowledge that to the true Mason, death is but the end of affliction and the entrance to a better life, and it feels that after the long patient continuance in well doing which has characterised the course of its deceased Brother, he has well earned repose in that haven of rest prepared for him by the Great Architect of the Universe. The Brethren of the Lodge in recalling the many kindly utterances with which he favored them, cannot fail to remember the recorded hope which he expressed at the time of the foundation of the Lodge, as to what they would be able to say of him if he laid his Bones among them, and in his own words they now sorrowfully say of him, 'He was an earnest Vicar, a true Mason, and a faithful Brother.' The Lodge earnestly prays that more than earthly consolation may be afforded to MRS. FISK, and that, blessed with that peace which the world cannot give, her grief may be assuaged and her sorrow lightened by the prospect of a reunion, in which the Brethren of the Lodge hope to join, in that Grand Lodge above, from whence all goodness emanates."
