

Party was filled for six or eight hours - in fact - I may could not attend - I sent by post a copy of the address - and hope before the end of the month to forward the full Proceedings & Statutes: which have appeared with some correcting and amendments

The Proceedings will give full particulars of the Meeting - but one objection to conduct there is rather somewhat difficult than as expected: but at the least quit my self will give them more publicly.
You will perceive in the address that is if you have patience to had thought it, only that I made good use of some remarks - we I mean conspire with me. In fact I am always glad of information and help of you - when anything particular strikes you relating to the order or any slips of mine to give the your candid opinion - you are as tiring man - and so well advised in all points connected with must think you give most desirable information. And I assume you I appreciate something of the kind - and only to be. It is a great pleasure to be just right - The Great Day left it to me to know our expectations with foreign jurisdiction - therefore who simply said I must be ready of Great Day - and aiming to true its formation - it will give me the greatest satisfaction to know you & be fact I have done to

I know of no one it gives me more pleasure to know as our Representative we expect than yourself: and it is but a small Compliment given myself for the very many services you untiringly & wisely have performed afforded me - all papers concerned with the Affairs of the King's Court - & always intimate to me - I don't quite under-anything about a Warrant for the Indemnity &c. and force us - know as it did not interfere with the Act - I for one will
