

Antient Charge:

"From Antient times no Master or Fellow could be absent from
"his Lodge, especially when warned to appear, without
"incurring severe censure; unless it appeared to the Master
"that pure necessity hindered him."

Antient and Honorable Fraternity of Free and Accepted Masons.

WORCESTER.

Wor. Bro. A. L. JAMES, W.M.

Bro. P. J. ROOPER, S.W.
Bro. H. W. MANSFIELD, J.W.

96 Omdersley Road, Worcester,

April 30th, 1923.

Dear Sir and Brother,

You are requested to attend an

EMERGENCY MEETING

in conjunction with the Worcester Lodge, No. 280, and the Semper Fidelis Lodge, No. 529, which will be held, by desire, under the Banner of this Lodge, at the Masonic Hall, St. Nicolas Street, Worcester, on Friday, May 18th, 1923, at 8.15 p.m. precisely, when the Worshipful Master hopes to have the assistance of the Masters, Wardens and Brethren of those Lodges for the purpose of welcoming Brethren visiting Worcester for the Conference of the National Association of Head Teachers.

I am, dear Sir and Brother,

Yours faithfully and fraternally,

C. J. KEATES,

P.M., P.P. Asst. G.S., Secretary.

MORNING DRESS.

Supper will be served after closing of Lodge, and those Brethren intending to stay are requested to notify the Stewards to that effect not later than May 14th, for which purpose a Post Card is enclosed. Provision will be made for none other than those replying. The limits of the accommodation will not, on this occasion, permit of visitors other than the Conference Delegates.

Antient Charge:

Labour of the Lodge:

---

- To open the Lodge at 7.0 p.m. precisely.
  - To read the Summons convening the Meeting.
  - To initiate Mr. Thomas Ernest Styles, who has been regularly elected.
  - To collect Alms.
  - To close the Lodge.

Lodge will be opened and closed by the Worshipful Master and Officers of the "Page" Lodge.

The Ceremony of Initiation will be shared by the Masters of the "Worcester," "Semper Fidelis" and "Page" Lodges—W. Bros. G. R. Gibson, F. W. Corfield and A. L. James respectively, with Bro. P. J. Roberts, of the "Page" Lodge, and W. Bro. C. H. Cook, of the "Semper Fidelis" Lodge, as Senior and Junior Wardens.

The Charge will be given by W. Bro. C. H. Cook, P.M., P.P.S.G.W.
