

July 8th 1878.

13. Bolton Row.

May Fair.

London, W.

Dear Brother Griffiths, Enclose extract
from the "Standard",
which please return.
You will see from it that at the Grand Lodge at Canterbury, they had the use of the Chapter House,
and in the service

there was a special hymn.

Could the offertory
in our case be appropriated partly to the infirmary & partly
to the Madamie Charities?

W. C. Brown, who is leaving for Germany, strongly urges the Claims of P. M.

J. H. Whalley, of the Malvern Lodge, a Bro.
Evans, a P. M. of the Semper Fidelis Lodge,
also of the Malvern

Lodge. It appears that Bro. Evans has been passed over before,
and is much disappointed. Possibly some office could be found for them, &
on hearing from you I will communicate with the Deputy J. G. M.

Believe me,

Yours faithfully & gratefully
W. W. DeClaw

W. C. W. Griffiths.
