2nd Decr 1875

Dear Bro: Griffitts,

All being well I hope to have the pleasure of seeing you on Wednesday next but as my train does not arrive until 2.20 I shall probably be a little late.

I suppose 'evening dress' is necessary, I ask because in this weather it is not the pleasantest travelling costume, - I shall probably have to return the same night -

Will it be necessary for me to bring down any Masonic clothing?

I have not yet got a Templar outfit as you said ~~it~~ was not necessary, & I shall not bring any jewels or apron unless necessary -

I hope I shall have the advantage of hearing the full ceremony as my visits will probably be few -

May I ask you to let me have a list of the above points also as to the fees which will be required -

Fraternally yours
G. T. O'Connell
