

by those of us amongst whom he lived of altogether & about three months Still ill, assuming the form of palsy, created some anxiety to his medical attendants, but a successful operation resulted in comfort to himself and hope to his friends - and he was ~~very~~^{gradually} recovered to take the air in a Bath chair ^{obtained} had for the purpose, and for some days he was better - by some means cold was taken, and Bronchitis set ^{3 days or before} in - I saw him on ^{the} Thursday last ^{17th} ^{before his death} remaining circling him some little time, when he expired the evening from the effects of apoplexy on the following day, Friday, in a fit of laughing one of the vessels gave way ~~and~~. Some ~~other~~ cause could not, under which on Sunday 16th he took tank without pain, and passed to the ^{rest} of above - If him I may indeed adopt your own language and write "The memory of our honored dead is ever dear to us, but none among them have passed away more deeply regretted than our late friend & eminent brother."
