

PROVINCE OF WORCESTER.

GRAND SECRETARY'S OFFICE.

William Bristow, P.P.S.G.W., Grand Secretary.

HORSLEY HEATH,
TIPTON,

Feb: 13. 1878

My dear Griffiths

I have received yours of yesterday and enclosure.
I know no one who would give greater satisfaction than Sir Edmund Lechmere as p.g.m. - When I was up at Great Priory Capt.
Phillips asked me who was the likely man as he said he sometimes had an opportunity of putting in a word at headquarters and I told him I knew no one so eligible as Sir Edmund.

You are wrong about our being under the Grand Registrar. — I wrote to Bro Hervey some time since asking what our position was as a pro. lodge seeing that according to the Constitution, on the death or resignation of the pro. Master the pro. lodge ceases to exist. He replied that Bro Royds had placed his resignation in the hands of H.R. St. The Grand Master but until his resignation was accepted and his successor appointed he continued to hold office and if unable to perform the duties, his Deputy could act. -

With regard to Mrs. Lane the sum of over 100 votes borrowed for Mr. Woods. - I think Gen. should do something in Warwickshire for her. - They never help us altho' I have time back but them votes which have not been repaid.
Warwickshire is in a position to return a Candidate without the assistance of neighbouring provinces.

1935/376

How very sad was the death of poor Mr. Scobell.

I hope yourself and family are now well.

Believe me

Yours sincerely

D. W. W. W. W. W.
