

J. C. GREGG.
SOLICITOR,
LEDBURY.

4th August 76

Dear Mrs. Griffiths.

p. G. L. Accounts
If I don't hear of T. Ingram tomorrow morning to the contrary I will be with you tomorrow to audit the accounts which I forgot all about till today -

Comp. Book informs me today that I am on a committee to revise the by-laws of the Chapter I have compared the present ones with the explanations but am not sufficiently able to see what are the defects - are required except on one point (which is clearly wrong) viz the no. of Black Balls which exclude - If you who know the points which are lacking can tell me of them or state what is Required to be added no doubt I could get something ready for our next meeting.

I suppose as tomorrow is Bank Holiday you will be found at home and not on ship

Trust about 15.

Yours faithfully

W. J. P.

As if it would suit you better I would have been on Wednesday evening I. F. W. of course for will you I should wish to
of the 15th at least

Worcester.

Would it be easier for you to come to the Crown than take your books up home or shop? be more likely to find some one handy there to help. Eh?
