The Third Annual Dinner and Dance of Paramount Lodge is now past history. It was a real enjoyable affair. The Entertainment Committee deserves a lot of credit for the arrangements. The appointments were perfect; the food was real good; the entertainment was marvelous. It was acclaimed a wonderful affair. Everybody appeared happy. I sincerely thank the Entertainment Committee for their arduous labors.

I was indeed sorry that some of our Brethren were unable to attend but I know that their spirits were with us.

I am very thankful to Right Worshipful Brother and Mrs. Mortimer Lanzit, Right Worshipful Brother and Mrs. Philip Manes, Worshipful Brothers Benjamin Gassman, Herman Agadstein, S. Alexander Shear, Jack Steinfeld and their ladies who broke bread with us. Their attendance added luster to our affair.

I am also thankful to Right Worshipful Brother and Mrs. Lawrence L. Levy, Worshipful Brother and Mrs. Charles A. Levy, Worshipful Brother and Mrs. Gus Rosenberg, Worshipful Brother and Mrs. Murry Rosenthal, Worshipful Brother and Mrs. Harry S. Beale, Worshipful Brother and Mrs. Herbert A. Malino, Worshipful Brother Sydney Mandell, and the other Masters and Past Masters who dropped in on us later in the evening to pay their respects.

We missed the smiling faces of Right Worshipful Brother and Mrs. Samuel Greenbaum. I was advised earlier in the day that they would not attend due to the death of his sister. Our sincerest condolences to our good friend "Sam" and his family.

I take this means of personally thanking every Brother of Paramount Lodge for the wonderful gift that was presented to Mrs. Lehrfeld on behalf of the Lodge. This is greatly appreciated and has been placed in a conspicuous spot in my home and will remain there as a remembrance of the wonderful year I spent as the Master of Paramount Lodge.
