ATTENDANCE AT LODGES OVERSEAS.

The Board of General Purposes at Grand Lodge wishes to warn Brethren of the danger when travelling abroad of becoming involved, generally through ignorance, with Masonic Lodges not recognised as regular by the United Grand Lodge. The Board desires to impress upon members that they should not make any Masonic contacts overseas with Masons of other Jurisdictions without having ascertained by application to the Grand Secretary at Freemason's Hall, the existence of regular Masonry in the country concerned, and the address to which Masonic enquiries in that country should be directed.
