Silver Jubilee Celebration

PREFACE.

As Master of the St. Edburgha Lodge in its Silver Jubilee year, I regard it as a privilege to introduce this Brochure to the Members of the Lodge and its many friends.

The spirit of good fellowship which has so consistently characterised this Lodge is, in reality, the true motive of this Brochure and long may this spirit continue.

May you all find in these pages an echo of golden memories and a source of happy inspiration for the coming years.

ROBERT E. SPITTLE,
Worshipful Master.

October, 1949.

Cover Illustration

The BANNER of the Lodge, presented by the Founders, depicts the Fifteenth Century Parish Church of Yardley, and the Elizabethan School Room. The Church is dedicated to St. Edburgha, from whom the Lodge derives its name. The motto at the foot of the Banner "URBS PROSPERA"—a prosperous settlement—indicated the confidence of the Founders in the ultimate prosperity of the Lodge.

Foreword to the By-Laws

by W. Bro. J. S. PRITCHETT, P.S.G.D. (Eng.),
DEPUTY P.G.M. (WARCKS.)

St. Eadburgh, or using her Latin name, St. Edburgha, to whom the Parish Church of Yardley is dedicated, was one of the numerous daughters of King Edward the Elder, the son of Alfred the Great.

Her father being desirous of arranging for her future, at the early age of three, caused to be placed before her the choice of a Prayer Book and Chalice on the one hand, and a bracelet and necklace on the other. The child grasped eagerly the Prayer Book and Chalice, and this was interpreted as a sign of her dedication to the service of God. She afterwards entered upon a religious life in the Convent of Winchester from which she was subsequently transferred to the Priory at Pershore, to which the Manor of Yardley belonged. There is a story of her humility worth preserving. It is said that when Abbess of Winchester, it was her custom to wash the socks of the Nuns while they were asleep, entering their cells noiselessly for that purpose.

During her life she obtained a great reputation for sanctity and on her death, both Winchester and Pershore, coveted her remains. Although she was interred at Winchester, Pershore nevertheless managed to obtain some of her bones which were preserved till the Reformation as precious relics, and are reputed to have worked many miracles of healing.

This is practically all that is known of St. Edburgha, but that she was an actual person, and in her lifetime greatly esteemed for her piety, is proved by the fact that many churches are dedicated to her memory. It is only natural that a Lodge of Freemasons meeting in the parish with which she was in her lifetime associated, should wish to adopt her name and that an ancient tradition of piety and good works should thus be handed down to posterity.

Lodge History

IN presenting a record of the first twenty-five years' activities of the St. Edburgha Lodge, some account of the human element and the motives which actuated its formation should be of interest to present and future members and create in them a sense of pride in its successful progress.

The first Lodge to be founded in the Stechford district of the Masonic Province of Worcestershire, was Stechford Lodge, No. 3185, consecrated in 1906. Eighteen years later it became evident that a new Lodge would be of great advantage in order to give those brethren who had more recently become Members, an opportunity of progressing in Office. W. Bro. James Lucking, a Founder and Past Master of Stechford Lodge, supported the suggestion that a daughter Lodge be formed, and accordingly, seven Past Masters and thirteen Junior Brethren submitted a Petition to Grand Lodge, sponsored by Stechford Lodge, after receiving the concurrence and support of the R.W. Provincial Grand Master, General Sir Francis J. Davies. The Petition was favourably received by Grand Lodge, and the Warrant, dated February 6th, 1924, was granted.

St. Edburgha Lodge (the thirty first active Lodge in the Province) was consecrated at Worcester Masonic Hall, on June 14th, 1924, the ceremony being conducted by the Prov. Grand Master, assisted by his Deputy, W. Bro. W. T. Page, P.G.D., and the following Provincial Officers:—

Bro. I. Waterfield, 3185.

Thus our newly consecrated Lodge commenced its Masonic career in 1924, and it is pleasing to record in 1943 that there are now eight Craft Lodges meeting at Stechford, thereby emphasising the growth of Masonry in this district of the Province. In addition, there are two Royal Arch Chapters, a Mark Lodge, and an Ark Mariners Lodge, meeting at the Stechford Masonic Hall.

We may here fittingly pay a tribute of respect and affection to those earnest and well loved Brethren who figured prominently in the work and development of the Lodge in its earlier years, and whose example of fraternal sincerity still remains :—

W. Bro. James Lucking.
W. Bro. Alfred Millington.
W. Bro. J. C. Gilbertt.

We are glad to record in this Brochure our great appreciation of this honour so worthily deserved by W. Bro. 1949 Bro. Robert Ernest Spittle installed.

The following is a summary of the Lodge's principal Charitable achievements in the course of its existence.

1. Donations to Masonic Charitable Institutions and Masonic Hospital amount to £2,163 and 193 Stewardships have been served. In this connection we record with pleasure our appreciation of the work of W. Bro. T. H. Baines who was Almoner from 1924, until his death in 1939, and equally so of his successor, W. Bro. T. L. Elliott, who still zealously continues this most important work.
2. Donations to the Worcestershire Provincial Benevolent Fund, War Relief Fund, Page Memorial Fund, Worcestershire Library and Museum Fund, and local Charities, total £1,084.
3. The Contribution to the Million Memorial Fund was £488.

Remembering that Charity may justly be deemed the distinguishing characteristic of a Freemason's heart, it is natural to assume that the Lodge will maintain and indeed improve on its record.

It is also of interest to note that the Lodge holds 510 £1 Shares in the Stechford Masonic Hall Company, and has in its Building Fund a further sum of £393, available for investment in the Fund to be used for the purpose of erecting and equipping the new Masonic Hall.

Thus, briefly, we have recorded the progress of St. Edburgha Lodge over its 25 years of service to Freemasonry. We are conscious of the happy associations, the brotherly affections, and the warm-hearted co-operative efforts that have characterised these years, thereby stimulating the spirit and ideals of the Craft throughout all our activities.

These years represent the labours and sincerity of purpose of many brethren, some of whom have ceased labour and passed on. The fruits of those efforts remain with us and constitute the tone and spirit of our Lodge as it exists to-day. Undoubtedly we have inherited richly from the example of our predecessors, and we are proud and privileged to follow them.

May the G.A.O.T.U. bless our future labours.
