VISITORS' SONG.

Ladies from the East and West,
We have done our very best
To ensure our welcome here,
Bright, fraternal and sincere.

Chorus—
Warm Masonic hearts to meet you,
Hands of fellowship to greet you,
May our welcome here to-day
Help to cheer you on your way.

We all recognise your worth—
Our best friends upon this earth,
For whatever be our lot
Rich or poor it matters not.

When on earth we say adieu,
May our love remain with you,
And may we renew that love
In a grander Lodge above.

WORSHIPFUL MASTER'S SONG.

We have toasts to the Craft, and to others,
That speed the thrill through the breast,
While singing in praise of our Brothers,
Who right rule o'er the West.
The blood in our veins flows the faster
As the health is proposed loud and free,
Of our excellent Worshipful Master,
For a jolly good Mason is he!

Here's a health to our Worshipful Master,
Beloved of us all "on the square,"
Let his name in the Craft with all honours be quaff'd,
And "prosper the art" ev'rywhere.

Though we greet him with hearty ovation,
As monarch o'er all he surveys,
We must help him on ev'ry occasion
His banner Masonic to raise,
Our love and obedience requite him,
Our zeal in the cause give him bliss,
And our harmonies ever delight him,
With a chorus as friendly as this,
Here's a health, etc.

At the sound of his voice or his gavel,
Let careful attention prevail,
None dreaming to cark or to cavel,
But cheerfully utter "all hail!"
May his year be a season of gladness,
His cup and his cupboard be full,
And our way to ward off care and sadness
Is with him together to pull,
Here's a health, etc.

"Let the singing singers,
With vocal voices, most vociferous
In sweet vociferation, out-vociferise
Ev'n sound itself."—H. Carey.
