Annual Report of the Executive Committee of the Grand Council.

The Committee have again the pleasure of submitting a statement of the funds of the Order, duly audited to 5th March, 1870, and which will doubtless be satisfactory to the Council, inasmuch as it exhibits an increase in the General Fund of £23 3s. 6d., the balance now in hand being £102 10s. 2d., and also an increase in the Grand Almoner's Fund of £17 9s. 6d., the amount in hand being £29 0s. 7d.

Since the last Report was issued eleven Conclaves have been established, and two dormant Conclaves revived; the total on the roll being now twenty-five, of which nineteen are located in England, Wales, and the Channel Islands, and six in the British dependencies abroad. The Executive Committee have conferred the higher degrees upon a limited number of Knights during the past year, but they believe that the time has now arrived when promotions to the higher ranks of the Order should be more restricted, and they are therefore ready to surrender the special powers enjoyed by the Committee since June, 1868. The Committee further beg to refer the subjoined important communication from the Grand Lodge of Mark Masters to the special consideration of the Grand Council—the movement alluded to therein being one which they believe would prove highly beneficial to all the unrecognised Orders and Degrees in Freemasonry.

London, 10th June, 1870.

OFFICE OF THE GRAND LODGE OF MARK MASTERS,
2, RED LION SQUARE, HIGH HOLBORN,
LONDON, W.C., 8th June, 1870.

To Sir Knight R. W. Little, Grand Recorder, Order of Red Cross of Rome and Constantine.

DEAR SIR KNIGHT,

At a Meeting of the General Board of the Grand Lodge held on 30th ult., amongst subjects of discussion, that of the desirability of a closer union than at present exists between the Degrees not included in the system recognised by the United Grand Lodge of England, occupied a prominent place.

A Resolution was unanimously adopted instructing me to communicate with you, requesting you to be good enough to submit for consideration by your Council a suggestion that it is advisable that negotiations should be opened between the two Bodies having for their object the settlement of terms of a Convention with a view to the ultimate formation of a Council of Rites, under whose supervision should be placed the whole of the Degrees and Orders of Masonry, not recognised by the Grand Lodge of England.

I wait your reply in the hope that the Red Cross Council will concur in the policy advocated by the Mark General Board, feeling perfectly convinced that if we can fortunately give effect thereto, it will be a step in the right direction.

I am,

Dear Sir Knight,

Yours in the Bonds of the Order,

FREDERICK BINCKES, G.S.

NOTE BY THE GRAND RECORDER

Since the presentation of the above Report, six additional Conclaves have been formed, and the General Fund being thus proportionately augmented, directions have been given to the Trustees of the Fund to effect the purchase of £200 Stock—Consols or Annuities.

The attention of Members of the Order is particularly directed to the highly interesting and important document which follows, and which is now for the first time published for general information.

London, 10th September, 1870.

MASONIC ORDER OF THE RED CROSS OF ROME AND CONSTANTINE.

Declaration of the principles of the above Order written in 1806 by the late Judge Waller Rodwell Wright, then M.I. Grand Master of the Order, and R.W. Provincial Grand Master for the Ionian Islands, under the Grand Lodge of England.

“THE Order of the Red + is one of those numerous branches of chivalry which had their origin in the Holy Wars, and the distinction worn by its Knights was the original badge of the Crusaders in general.

“As this Order never was endowed with particular revenues, its members were for the most part persons of independent condition, or associated with one of the great Sovereign Orders of the Temple, or St. John of Jerusalem.

“As however the distinguishing characteristics and constitutions of this Order, though existing only in unwritten tradition, have been partially preserved to the present age, some K. Templars, zealous in the united cause of Masonry and Chivalry, have thought it expedient to revive it, on the footing of its antient establishment, and that for various reasons :

“First. Because the original intent of the Masonic Institution has been greatly frustrated by the indiscriminate admission of persons of every description and character.

“Second. Because it unfortunately happens that the sublime branch of our system known by the denomination of Christian Masonry has fallen into still worse hands, whereby the Test of Faith originally required of the Candidates for initiation has been dispensed with, the rites and mysteries of the Order degraded, and selection rendered indispensably necessary.

“Thirdly ; and this, indeed, is the most powerful reason which has induced them to bring forward this antient Order. They earnestly wish to counteract the evil designs to which the privileges of the Masonic system have been perverted by men of unprincipled character, and to combat the enemies of Christianity and social order by the same secret and powerful means which they have made use of to effect their purposes.

“The objects, therefore, of the Red + are these :—

“To draw closer the bond of Masonic union, purify the system of Masonic science, extend its limits, and increase its influence by combining such of its professors as are best qualified by character and principle, respectability and influence, genius and talent, to effectuate this great purpose.

“To prevent the perversion of its institutions and privileges to objects contrary to and abhorrent from its original intent.

“To combat infidelity and treason under whatever form existing, and promote by every human means the social happiness and eternal welfare of our fellow-creatures.

“It is therefore necessary :—

“That we observe the greatest circumspection in the choice of our members and associates.

“That we adhere inviolably and scrupulously to the principles and constitutions of our Order.

“That we cultivate a strict and fraternal union among ourselves.

“And that we on all occasions give our decided preference to intellectual and moral excellence over every other consideration whatsoever.”

“I hereby certify that the Manuscript of which the above is a verbatim extract, is one of the documents relating to the Red Cross Order which were found in the archives of the Grand Lodge of England, and handed over by command of the Right Honourable the Earl of Zetland, P.G.M., then M.W. Grand Master, to Lord Kenlis, the head of the Order of the Red Cross in England.”

JOHN HERVEY (P.S.G. Deacon),
