For Business see other side

Our Worshipful Master proposes to attend as a Steward at the 1939 Festival of the Royal Masonic Institution for Boys, and earnestly solicits the support of the Brethren.

"Be very cautious whom you recommend as a Candidate for Initiation; one false step on this point may prove fatal. If you introduce a disputatious person, confusion will be produced, which may end in the dissolution of the Lodge. If you have a good Lodge, keep it select. Great numbers are not always beneficial."—Dr. OLIVER.
