> Dismissal Charge.

Brethen, you are now about to quit this eacred retreat of peace and friendship, and soon to mix again with the busy world. Amidst all its cares, its trials and employmen's forget not these sacred duties which have been so frequent:inculcated and so strongly recommended in this Lodge. Be ye therefore discreet, prudent and temperate. Remenes 'bat on the $\nabla$. of the S.I. you have solemnly and voluntaris vowed to relieve and befriend with unhesitating cordiall'- every friend or brother who may solicit your assistancs, t/, reosif him in the most gentle manner of his failings, $w$ aid and vindicate his character whenever unjustly st', cied, and to suggest the most comfortable circumstances in him, eve though his conduct may fustly be liable to repren s. sion ar l Lleme. Thus shall the world know how Freemason, esceem esth other.

But, Brethen, you are expecter to uctend 1r.ose noble and generous principles still furthe:. Let me 1 press upon your minds, and may it be instilled into $y=r$ tearts, 'hr's every hman creature has a just claim on your kipl iffices, bc $y$ therefore good to all, as Scripture commands, part cularly :n ts e household of the faithful. and by diligence and fide. ity in the ischarge of the duties of your respective vocations, id ral ber: ficence and diffusive charity, by congtancy and since $-1, v$ is all yur friandahips, and by an uniformly kind, fust, amiati: 9 gm virturus deportment, you may prove to the whole world the happ; and roifcial effects of our ancient and honourable institution. $\therefore$ et it not bi said that you laboured in vain, or wasted your streng' $\mathrm{Y}_{\text {, }}$ or nought, for your work is before the Lord, your recompense with - Go:

Fitaity, Brethia be of one mind and live in peace.
Th o Lora slo ss you and keop you.
The LTrd wake His face shine upon you and be gracious unte you.
The Lord left up his countenance upon you, and give you peace, and may He, the God of love and mercy, delight to dwell among you and bless and preserve you now and for evermore.

