INTRODUCTION

The Present Collection of Books, Medals, Pottery, Clothing etc. belonging to the Provincial Grand Lodge of Worcestershire owes its inception to the devoted labours of Wor. Bro. George Taylor, Past Grand Standard Bearer, England, and Provincial Grand Secretary of Worcestershire. In 1884 a Masonic Exhibition was organised by him in the Guildhall, Worcester, consisting of items loaned by collectors all over England. Many of the exhibits were Brother Taylor's own property and he continued to add to his collection, which was purchased by the Provincial Grand Lodge of Worcestershire in 1890.

A short list of Books recommended to those Brethren desirous of making an advancement in Masonic Knowledge.

The selection does not pretend to be exhaustive, it is merely suggestive. Any Brother desiring to pursue any particular subject should apply to the Librarian who will be pleased to suggest other books. Brethren are reminded that the Transactions of the various Lodges of Research such as the Quatuor Coronati Lodge, the Leicester Lodge of Research etc. contain articles on nearly every subject of Masonic interest.
