It is with pleasure we present to you, an impression of the Symbolic Eagle of the 32^o which we designed and engraved for use of Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite Bodies for the Northern Jurisdiction of the United States of America, particularly on behalf of Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite Bodies of the Valley of the Schuylkill—the youngest Consistory.

We invite especial attention to the absolute correctness of detail conforming in strict accordance with the authentic requirements of Supreme Council for the Northern Masonic Jurisdiction.

Our Artificer has taken this new design, and put it into fine gold for Thirty-third Degree Jewels for Members of Supreme Council and Officers' jewels for the various Bodies; also the purple ribbon neck jewels the registrars wear when receiving candidates.

Fraternally yours,

E. Harding M Intere

Dear Bro C. D. Eaton

I do not know if the enclosed would be of any interest for the Masonic Library at Worcester, if so you are quite welcome to same. May be they are of no value as an exhibit, in which case discard them

Yours fraternally
James H. Pearce
