The Visitors' Song.

ooo

Ladies from the East and West,
We have done our very best,
To ensure your welcome here,
Bright, fraternal, and sincere.

CHORUS—

Warm Masonic hearts to meet you,
Hands of fellowship to greet you,
May their welcome here to-day,
Cheer and smooth life's thorny way

We all recognise your worth—
Our best friends upon this earth
For whatever be our lot,
Rich or poor it matters not.

When on earth we say adieu,
May our love remain with you,
And may we renew that love,
In a Grandeur Lodge above.

The Wor. Master's Song.

ooo

We have feasts in the Craft among others
That specially thrill through the breast,
While singing in praise of our Brothers,
Who rightly rule over the rest.
The blood in our veins flows the faster
As the health is proposed loud and free,
Of our excellent Worshipful Master,
For a jolly good Mason is he.

CHORUS.

Here's a health to our Worshipful Master,
Beloved of us all "on the square,"
Let his name in the Craft with all honours be quaff'd
And "prosper the art" everywhere.

Though we greet him with hearty ovation,
As monarch o'er all he surveys,
We must help him on ev'ry occasion,
His banner Masonic to raise.
Our love and obedience requite him,
Our zeal in the cause give him bliss,
And our harmonies ever delight him,
With a chorus as friendly as this—

Here's a health, etc

At the sound of his voice or his gavel
Let careful attention prevail,
None dreaming to carp or to cavil,
But cheerfully utter "all hail!"
May his year be a season of gladness,
His cup and his cupboard be full,
And our way to ward off care and sad
Is with him together to pull.

Here's a health etc.

We'll dress him up in vices.—Troilus & Cressida.

Will sing the song that pleaseth thee.—Henry I.
