

THE FOUR CROWNED MARTYRS

The legend appears in our Constitutions of four Christian Masons who rather than construct idols for the Roman Emperor Diocletian suffered torture and eventual decapitation. They give their name to the Quattuor Coronati Lodge the foremost Masonic research lodge in the World.

Copyright Worcester and Wiltshire Masonic Library and Museum Trust