ODE.

(Two—Sanden.)

Lead Kindly Light, amid the encircling gloom—

Lead Thou me on;

The night is dark, and I am far from home—

Lead Thou me on;

Keep Thou my feet, I do not ask to see

The distant scene, one step enough for me.

I was not ever thus, nor prayed that Thou

Shouldst lead me on;

I loved to choose and see the path; but now

Lead Thou me on.

I loved the garish day, and, spite of fears,

Pride ruled my will: remember not past years.

So mote it be.

OBE.

(Tune--Eventide.)

Abide with me, fast falls the eventide,
The darkness deepens, Lord, with me abide ;
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, O abide with me !

Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day,
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away ;
Change and decay in all around I see :
O Thou, Who changest not, abide with me.

I fear no foe with Thee at hand to bless,
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness ;
Where is death's sting ? where, grave, thy victory ?
I triumph still if Thou abide with me.

Lodge Closed.
