UNIFORM.

Members will use their own uniforms and thus not deprive our visitors the use of those in the armory intended exclusively for their use.

ERIE, MAY, 1884.

The Committee of Ways and Means having in charge the Pilgrimage to Erie in May, 1884, contemplate a trip in connection therewith through the Oil Regions of Pennsylvania, to Bradford, to the Kinzua Viaduct, the highest railroad bridge in the world, &c. The Sir Knights of Bradford will arrange special trains for visits to the Oil Wells, for the torpedoing of one or more wells, &c., &c.

The Oil Regions so many of the Sir Knights, will be a real curiosity. Arrangements will, as usual, be made for ladies to accompany us.

Members and others desiring to participate in this pilgrimage, will please notify E. Sir John L. Young.
