

ORDER OF EXERCISES

FOR THE FUNERAL OBSEQUIES OF

R. W. GEORGE FRANK GOULEY,

Late Grand Secretary Grand Lodge of Missouri, A. F. & A. M.

ON SUNDAY, APRIL 15, 1877,

—BY—

MISSOURI LODGE, No. 1. A. F. & A. M.

LODGE WILL BE OPENED IN MASTER MASONS' ROOM AT ONE O'CLOCK P. M.

Lodge will then form in procession and march to the large hall under escort of the Grand Commandery of Missouri.

PRAYER.

HYMN.

Address by M. W. Xenophon Ryland, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Missouri.

Address by W. Bro. J. H. Goodin, P. M. of Missouri Lodge, No. 1.

LODGE SERVICES.

The Lodge will then form in funeral procession under the direction of R. W. John C. Bloomfield, Grand Marshal, and W. B. O. M. W. Eagan, P. M., Assistant Marshal, in the following order:

1. Knights Templar
2. Bearers and Pa. Bearers.
3. Tyler, with drawn sword.
4. Stewards, with rods.
5. Master Masons.
6. Senior and Junior Deacons.
7. Secretary and Treasurer.
8. Senior and Junior Wardens.
9. Past Masters.
10. Present and Past Grand Officers.
11. Bearer of Great Lights.
12. M. W. Grand Master Xenophon Ryland, and W. Bro. Chas. F. Vogel, Master Missouri Lodge, No. 1.

The route will be down Chestnut to Fourth Street, up Fourth to Washington Avenue, thence to Sixteenth Street, where the Carriages will be in waiting.

Other organizations desirous of participating will be assigned a place in the procession upon application to R. W. Bro. John C. Bloomfield, Grand Marshal.

By order of

CHAS. F. VOGEL,

W. M. Missouri Lodge No. 1.

WM. H. MAYO,

Secretary.