

MASONIC BALL.

Under the Sanction of the BANK OF ENGLAND LODGE, and in aid of its BENEVOLENT FUND.

The board of Stewards appointed to conduct the FIFTH ANNUAL BALL, on the 22d of January, 1834, at the New London Hotel, Bridge Street, Blackfriars, will feel themselves greatly obliged by the patronage of

The arrangements of the Evening are made with every possible view to secure both comfort and convenience.

TICKETS (including Tea and Coffee, Refreshments, and Supper), for Ladies, Eight Shillings; and for Gentlemen, Twelve Shillings each.

Royal Arch and other honorary Jewels may be worn, but Collars and Aprons are expressly interdicted.

Every Ticket must contain the name of the Visitor, and be countersigned by a Member of the Lodge.

NEW LONDON HOTEL,

Dec. 1833.