

Van Trump was an Admiral brave and bold
 The Dutchmans pride was he
 And he cried "Ill reign on the rolling main"
 As I do on the Zuider Zee ( twice )
 And as he paced his quarter deck
 And looked oer the misty tide
 He saw old England like a speck
 And he shook his fist and cried twice { "Ive a broom at the mast" said he { "For a broom is the sign for me"

 { Thatwherever I go the world may know
 { I sweep the sea mighty sea"

Now we have an Admiral whos as good as gold
 And proud of him are we
 And when he sits in King Solomans Chair
 A mighty man is he, A mighty man is he.
 For with the gavel gay he holds full sway
 And the ritual makes quite plain
 In either degree, one, two or three
 For the benefit of all brethren (twice) twice { Oh the Initiates all declare { Never before were they aware

 { Of being addressed, or impressed with all thats best { As from the Master's Chair.

Smeaton's the Lodge in which tis sought
 Honour and prestige to win
 For Emulation is being taught
 Most thoroughly by him (twice)
 Now in Grand Lodge none better could they find
 As a Deputy G. S. B.

Then our-r Worthy W. M.
 And with me you will agree ( twice )
 For he leads all to train
 Our hearts and hands and mien twice { So the world may know wherever we go { A Mason's a Man amongst Men.

The words addressed in the 2nd Verse and in in the 3rd verse are underlined intentionally to accentuate same, for you will find it a job to get into the tune otherwise also in the 3rd verse our-r is to prolong it.
