M<sup>rs</sup> Aldworth daughter of Lord Doneraile initiated on 17 -

She had secreted herself in a room adjoin-ing one where a Lodge was being held, & being discovered, it was deemed expedient to initiate The Jewel worn by her is in the possession of No 1. Masonic Lodge in Cork -

The Apron is in possession of -

Col Aldworth's Brother W.
Richard Oliver Aldworth of Newmarket House, Co Cork - now head of the Aldworth family, ~~but it is~~ but it is much dilapidated

The Manner Chair as represented in the engraving was Col Aldworth was told by an auctioneer in Cork sold among some old furniture 18 years ago for a very small sum, & was broken up by the purchaser, who placed no value on it -

(Col Aldworth has been told

What there is a full length portrait of her in a Masonic Hodge at Bristol, but he had not seen it. These are also  $\frac{3}{4}$  length portraits at Pinecroft Park & Newmarket House -
