Dear Mr Taylor.

I have at last got hold of the 1865 Edition, so that you possess the only complete set of Prof. L's works to exist.

I have also the copy with 1866 on ~~back~~ front title page & 1865 inside.

In addition to this I have the 1866 Edition, uncut. Will you kindly tell me if on page 56 of your 1866 Edition the letters ~~WTT~~^{M.W.} are placed reversely as WTT before "the Grand Master". Does this mistake run through the whole edition or is it only an uncorrected early proof.

I suppose you have not been able to put me in the position of securing any of your books.

Yours faithfully
A. A. Moore

Dear Bro Taylor

I return your Constitution with thanks,

It is supposed to be a reprint of the 1863 edition and ~~is~~ is nearly so, but not quite verbatim.

I was not aware that there were any about with the date of 1865 on the cover and title page, so you have a very scarce book.
I think I got you the 1866 copy did I not?
If so.

Just look at the date under the G. S.'s signature & the sanction and see whether it is Decr 1865 or September/66. if the former you will find the book in other respects the same as this one, except ^{date on} cover & (title page, if the latter it is all right and is one of the bona fide revised edition 1866

Yours fraternally
N Sadler
