Boar's Head Carol

The Carol was sung originally at Queen's College, Cambridge.
The Chorus is in Latin, as is the last line of every verse.
Translations are as follows:

Chorus: Caput Auri de Ferro
Reddens Laudes Domino

The Boar's Head I bring
Giving Praise to the Lord

Verse 1: Quot Estis in Convivo

Those who are in the feast

Verse 2: Servire cum Cantico

Let us serve with a song

Verse 3: In Reginensi Atrio

In the Hall of the Queen

The Boar's Head in hand bear I
Bedecked with bay and rosemary
I bid you my Masters be merry
Quot Estis in Convivo

Chorus
Our Master hath provided this
In honour of the King of Bliss
Which on this day to be served is Reginensi Atrio

Chorus
The Boar's Head as I understand
Is the rarest dish in all the land
Which now bedecked with a gay garland
Servire com Cantico

The Ladies' Song

Ladies from the East and West,
We have done our very best.
To ensure your welcome here,
Bright fraternal and sincere.

Chorus

Warm Masonic hearts to meet you,
Hands of fellowship to greet you.
May our welcome here today,
Cheer and smooth life's thorny way.

We all recognise your worth,
Out best friends upon this earth.
For whatever be our lot -
Rich or poor it matters not.

Chorus

And when we shall adieu,
May our love remain with you.
And may we renew that love,
In a Grandeur Lodge above.

Chorus

The Parting Song

Are your glasses charged in the West and South the Worship Master cries.
They're charged in the West, they're charged in the South, and the Wardens' prompt replies.

Then to our final toast tonight your glasses freely drain.
Happy to meet, sorry to part, happy to meet again.

Chorus

Happy to meet again, happy to meet again.
happy to meet, sorry to part,
Happy to meet again.

Amidst our mirth we drink to all poor
Masons o'er the world.
In every clime our flag of love is gloriously unfurled.

We prize each brother fair or dark who bears no moral stain.

Happy to meet, sorry to part, happy to
meet again.

Chorus

Ye brethren of the Mystic Art, the night is waning fast.

Our feast is o'er, our work is done, this toast must be our last.

Goodnight, goodnight once more, once more repeat the well known strain.

Happy to meet, sorry to part, happy to
meet again.

Chorus.
