A rich man once saw on his travels an old man planting a carob tree. He asked him when he thought the tree would bear fruit. "After 70 years" was the reply.

"Dost thou expect to live 70 years and eat the fruit of thy labour?" the rich man asked.

"I did not find the world desolate when I entered it" said the old man. "And as my Fathers planted before I was born, so do I plant for those who will come after me".
