FORTY YEARS ON

E E Bowen

Forty years on when afar and asunder
Parted are those who are singing to-day,
When you look back and forgetfully wonder
What you were like in your work or your play;
Then, it may, there will often come o'er you
Glimpses of notes like the catch of a song -
Visions of boyhood shall float them before you,
Echoes of dreamland shall bear them along.

*Follow up! Follow up! Follow up! Follow up! Follow up!
Till the field ring again and again,
With the tramp of the twenty two men.
Follow up! Follow up!*

Routes and discomfitures, rushes and rallies,
Bases attempted and rescued and won,
Strife without anger, and art without malice -
How will it seem to you forty years on?
Then, you will say, not a feverish minute
Strained the weak heart and the wavering knee,
Never the battle raged hottest but in it,
Neither the last nor the faintest were we!

Follow up!, etc.

O the great days in the distance enchanted,
Days of fresh air, in the rain and the sun,
How we rejoiced as we struggled and panted -
Hardly believable forty years on!
How we discoursed of them, one with another,
Auguring triumph or balancing fate,
Loyal the ally with the heart of a brother,
Hated the foe with a playing at hate!

Follow up!, etc.

Forty years on, growing older and older,
Shorter in wind as in memory long,
Feeble of foot and rheumatic of shoulder,
What will it help you that once you were strong?
God gives us bases to guard and beleaguer,
Games to play out whether earnest or fun;
Fights for the fearless and goals for the eager,
Twenty and thirty and forty years on!

Follow up!, etc.
