Bonfire before the Ruins of the H·R·D·M· Castle
In Commemoration of the Institution of the Royal Cumberland Free Mason School
On Lady Day the 25th of March 1788

Under the Auspices of her Royal Highness the Dutchess of Cumberland
Patroness

HUMANE AND BENEVOLENT B· RUSPINI TREASURER, TO WHOM THIS PLATE IS DEDICATED AS A MONUMENT TO THE CHARITY OF THE BENEF ACTORS PROJECTED AND FOUNDED BY THE

Copyright Worcestershire Masonic Library and Museum Trust

Why does the Sun his glorious Beams display
Within a Mason's Lodge or Moon reflect her Ray
Why doth the Star and Circling ⊙ appear
Why J· & B· two Pillars ever rear

NIGHT

The Light Slume Through the Darkness

Why does the T– r constant bear the Sword
And our true W– n demand the P– s word
Quick answer make and you'll be justly free
Entitled to our further Secrecy