

My dear Sir
Many thanks to you for very kind letter, regret exceedingly that I could not join the last Meeting I am much indebted for the trouble you have taken on my accounts.

You can place a cheque for the amount in the hands of my Clark the bearer who has business at his own house - He will give you an acknowledgment.

I shall embrace an early opportunity of calling upon you before we

As dear Sir

I am very truly

Yours
Geo. Stokes
