The origins of the Lodge date back to the time of the Great War, for it was in April 1918 that a member of the Prudence Lodge No. 3659 - a Bro. Walter Waters - approached the Master Elect, Bro. Robert Prior, with a suggestion that if peace was declared would he consent to sponsor a new lodge from Prudence Lodge No. 3659 in order to give the young and enthusiastic members a chance to realize their ambition and reach the Master's Chair in a reasonable time.

This suggestion was favourably received, and on the 12th December 1918 an inaugural meeting of the founders was held. W.Bro. F. J. Penn was invited to take the Chair and Bro. J. Rowland was appointed Secretary of the Founders.

The first matter to resolve was the name of the Lodge. As the war had ended some three weeks earlier, the word "Peace" was naturally uppermost in the minds of the brethren. The "Lodge of Harmony" had also been suggested, but it appeared that W.Bro. Penn was determined to have the word "Peace" associated with it. Seemingly a list of compound names was produced and no doubt, after much discussion, it was eventually agreed to adopt the name of "Peace and Harmony".

It was agreed that the Lodge would meet on the fourth Saturday of the months September to April inclusive at the Masonic Hall, Severn Street, Birmingham.

The Initiation fee was fixed at fifteen guineas, the Joining fee at three guineas and the Annual Subscription at four guineas. The officers designate agreed to purchase their own collars and jewels of office.

An special Meeting of the Provincial Grand Lodge of Warwickshire was held at the Masonic Hall, Severn Street, Birmingham on Saturday 24th May 1919 at 4.45 p.m. for the purpose of consecrating the Lodge. The R.W. Provincial Grand Master, Col. W. F. Wyley presided supported by a large number of Provincial Grand Officers and Brethren. W.Bro. J. S. Pritchett, Senior Grand Deacon of the Grand Lodge of England was also present.

It having been previously decided that W.Bro. F. J. Penn, Past Provincial Grand Warden, Past Master of Bedford Lodge No. 925, and Concord Lodge No. 3239 should be the first Master of the Lodge of Peace and Harmony, he was installed and subsequently appointed and invested his Officers. Of the seventeen Officers invested, twelve were from Prudence Lodge with the other five drawn from Fallowfield Lodge No. 2733, Callendar Lodge No. 1052, Lodge of Charity No. 1551, Loyal Travellers Lodge No. 2733 and St. James Lodge No. 482.

In January 1920 it was proposed that the Worshipful Master and Wardens of Prudence Lodge No. 3659, be invited to close the Lodge. This was carried into effect at the meeting held on 27 March 1920. Thus was forged the first link in the chain that binds the two Lodges together. It established a custom, which whilst not practiced as frequently as it should be, still remains to this day.

At an Officers meeting held on 13 January 1922, a committee was appointed to see what could be done in the matter of forming a Lodge of Instruction. Clearly no time was lost, for the Lodge of Instruction held its first meeting on the 5 September 1922 in a room at No. 11 Upper Priory, Birmingham. It met regularly on the first and third Tuesdays of each month during the Masonic sessions. The first Annual Festival was held on the 20 April 1923 at the Imperial Hotel, Birmingham. The reason for change to the second and third Thursdays as exist at present is not apparent.

The early 1920's was a busy time for the Lodge for it was in 1923 that an emergency meeting was held at which a Petition was signed for the formation of a Royal Arch Chapter. In due course the Chapter was consecrated on the 22 January 1924.

Prior to this in October 1921 it was proposed that a Benevolent Fund be formed and that each new initiate should be required to contribute one guinea, and that there should be one annual Charity Box collection donated to the fund. A situation which continues to this day.

On the 22 October 1927 the Lodge held its first meeting at the new temple in Broad Street during the Mastership of W.Bro. John Hill. He was also appointed the first Temple Councillor to represent the Lodge at meetings of the Temple Council, the body which controls administration of the Warwickshire Memorial Temple Limited.

This was the first move the Lodge experienced. The second came in 1939, when two months into the start of World War 2 the meeting place was changed to the Edgbaston Assembly Rooms, Francis Road, Broad Street, seemingly being full to capacity. A third move came about in September 1971 when the Lodge, together with all others at Francis Road transferred to the newly constructed Temple in Stirling Road. The Worshipful Master at that time was W.Bro. T. C. N. Arthur.

To commemorate the Silver Jubilee in 1944, a silver loving cup suitably inscribed and engraved with the names of the Founders and Past Masters of the Lodge, was presented to the Lodge by the members to celebrate the Silver Jubilee and placed in the safe custody of the Worshipful Master to be passed on to his successor.

In 1954 we acquired a Sister Lodge, Elizabethan Lodge No. 7341, sponsored by our Mother Lodge, Prudence No. 3659.

Over the years many brethren have demonstrated their generosity towards the Lodge. The first Banner was presented to the Lodge by Bro. J. D. Rowland, the Secretary to the Founders and the first Junior Warden.

In 1957 W.Bro. W. H. Osbourne accepted on behalf of the Lodge a new Banner which had been embroidered by the wife of W.Bro. Clizzy Lovern. A record number of 45 brethren of the Lodge and 55 visitors attended the subsequent Banner Dedication by the Right Worshipful Provincial Grand Master the Very Reverend Michael Clarke, M.A., Provost of Birmingham.

In 1962 W.Bro. F. R. Cross presented to the Lodge a gift of a Bible sent by the brethren of Camden Lodge No. 15, Newark, New Jersey, and suitably inscribed.

In 1982 W.Bro. T. C. N. Arthur presented a set of Working Tools, and prior to this Bro. Spelman-Lee, Organist for many years, had presented a Welcome Mat knitted by his wife.

The Lodge has always been a keen supporter of all Masonic Charities which is amply illustrated by the institutions of which it has become Patron, all of which are listed on the front page of the Summons.

The ancestry of the Lodge was traced back, as far as possible, by the late W.Bro. A. W. Hughes, who faithfully maintained our Lodge History until his passing to the Grand Lodge Above in 1968. It transpires that a Warrant No. 305 was issued on the 2nd November, 1758 by the Grand Lodge of Ireland to form a Lodge in the 4th Black Irish Horse, who were later to become the 7th Princess Royal's Dragoon Guards. They in turn sponsored the formation of Athol Lodge No. 74 in Birmingham in the year 1811. From that Lodge sprang amongst many others Temperance Lodge No. 79 in 1858. They sponsored Bedford Lodge No. 925 in 1862. Bedford Lodge sponsored Prudence Lodge No. 3659 in 1913 and The Lodge of Peace and Harmony became their daughter Lodge in 1919. We in turn sponsored our Daughter Lodge Heartland No. 8990 who were consecrated in 1981.

On the 5th May, 1969, the Lodge under the Mastership of W.Bro. G. Harper celebrated its Golden Jubilee and on that occasion there were 39 members and 44 visitors present, amongst whom was V.W.Bro. W. W. Tongue, Past Grand Superintendent of Works, Deputy Provincial Grand Master. Of the Brethren present on that evening sadly only eight remain with us today.

It is interesting to note that up until 22nd April, 1939, our Masonic Dress was Dinner Suit, however, upon the outbreak of War in October 1939 the dress was changed to Morning Suit or Uniform. The wearing of uniform continued right up until 1950, but the wearing of Dinner Suit never returned, except for one Installation meeting. During the austere period of the War years the Lodge would meet during the dark winter months at 1.30 p.m. and observe high tea round about 4.30 p.m. before dispersing.

Over the 75 years that the Lodge has been in existence, it has enjoyed 71 Masters, 4 having served twice. Between them they have initiated 195 Brethren. Of the 71 Masters, 55 were eventually honoured with Provincial Rank and of these 14 were privileged to receive active office.

It is pleasing to record that over the years six brethren of the Lodge have been honoured with Grand Rank.

W.Bro. T. L. Green, P.G.St.B.

W.Bro. J. Hill, P.A.G.St.B.

W.Bro. W. H. Osbourne, P.A.G.D.C.

W.Bro. W. C. Howard, P.A.C.D.C. (not a Past Master of the Lodge)

W.Bro. D. W. Lloyd, P.G.St.B.

The sixth and unquestionably our most honoured member is W.Bro. F. R. Cross, P.S.G.D., upon whom was conferred the office of Assistant Provincial Grand Master, after having held the office of Provincial Grand Director of Ceremonies for some 19 years with great distinction.
