

Royal Masonic Institution for Boys.

37, Goodge Street, Fitzroy Square, December, 1837.

Worshipful Sir,

His Royal Highness, The Duke of Sussex, Most Worshipful Grand Master, having been pleased to appoint the Anniversary Festival of this Institution to take place at Freemason's Hall, on Wednesday the 14th of March next, I am desired by the Treasurer to request the favor of your kind & support of the Charity; and that you would favor me with the name of a Brother from your Lodge to serve as Steward upon the occasion.

I have the honor to be,

Worshipful Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

Secretary.

To the W. Master of the Lodge of Emulation

P.S. It being necessary that the First Meeting of the Board of Stewards should be held as early as possible, your answer to this communication is respectfully requested. —
