The Grand Stewards of the Year.
The Master, Past Masters, and Wardens of the Grand Stewards' Lodge, and the Masters, Past Masters, and Wardens of many other Lodges.

The Grand Lodge was opened, in the New Masonic Hall, in due Form and with solemn prayer.

The Minutes of the last Quarterly Communication, as to the Election of the M. W. Grand Master and the Grand Treasurer, were read and confirmed.

The R. W. Deputy Grand Master laid before the Grand Lodge a Letter which His Lordship had received from the M. W. Grand Master, which was read, as follows, viz.—

My dear Lord and R. W. Brother,

Kensington-Palace, 27th April, 1835.

As the state of my health will prevent my attending at the approaching Grand Festival of the Craft, I have to request that your Lordship will be kind enough to explain the cause of my absence, and will invest the several Brethren whom I have appointed Grand Officers for the ensuing year, a list of which appointments accompanies this.

I trust your Lordship will do me the favour again to accept the Office of Deputy Grand Master, the duties of which you have so ably and satisfactorily discharged during the past year.

In announcing the re-appointment of the LORD DUNDAS as Pro Grand Master, you will be pleased to explain that the absence of that M. W. Brother is occasioned by the circumstance of this being just the completion of the year in which his Lordship sustained the heavy domestic affliction which overwhelmed him with grief, and from which he has not yet sufficiently recovered to appear at a public meeting.

Believe me, my dear Lord and R. W. Brother,

Your affectionate Brother and sincere Friend,

(Signed) AUGUSTUS FREDERICK, G. M.

To the R. W. Deputy Grand Master,
The EARL OF DURHAM, &c. &c. &c.

The following Brethren were then invested and proclaimed as Grand Officers for the ensuing Year, viz.—

THE LORD DUNDAS, Pro Grand Master.

THE EARL OF DURHAM, Deputy Grand Master.

ROWLAND G. ALSTON, M.P. S.G.W.
EDWARD G. SANFORD, M.P. J.G.W.
WILLIAM W. PRESCOTT, G. Treasurer.
Rev. WILLIAM FALLOFEILD, G. Chaplain.
WILLIAM MEYRICK, G. Registrar.
WILLIAM H. WHITE, } G.S.
EDWARDS HARPER, }

ARCHIBALD KEIGHTLEY, S.G.D.
BENJAMIN LAWRENCE, J.G.D.
Sir JOHN SOANE, G. Superintendent of Works.
Sir W. WOODS, (Clarenceux), G. Director of Ceremonies.
JOHN MASSON, G.S.B.
Sir GEORGE SMART, G. Organist.
ROBERT MILLER, G. Pursuivant.

The Grand Lodge being closed in due Form, the Brethren moved in Procession round the Hall, (the Organ playing,) after which the Members of the Grand Lodge, and a great Number of other Brothers, partook of an elegant Entertainment provided by the Stewards.

The Thanks of the Grand Lodge were unanimously voted to the Board of Grand Stewards for their great Liberality, and for their Attention to the Accommodation and Comfort of the Brethren.

The Lodges appointing Grand Stewards having made a Return to the M. W. Grand Master of the Brethren proposed for the ensuing Year, and His Royal Highness having approved of them, they were presented and proclaimed accordingly, viz.—

Brother WILLIAM F. WALKER of No. 108,	by Brother JOS. COPELAND BELL, President.

The Grand Stewards of the Year.
The Master, Past Masters, and Wardens of the Grand Stewards' Lodge, and the Masters, Past Masters, and Wardens of many other Lodges.

The Grand Lodge was opened in ample Form and with solemn Prayer.

The Minutes of the Quarterly Communication of the 4th March, and of the Grand Festival on 29th April last were severally read and confirmed.

The Minutes of the Lodge of Benevolence of the 25th March, 30th April, and 27th May, were severally read and approved.

A Report from the Board of General Purposes was read, in which they call the attention of the Grand Lodge to the frequent Neglect of Lodges to the Form of Recommendation attached to the Petitions of Applicants to the Lodge of Benevolence for Relief, by Reason of which Neglect the Lodge of Benevolence is not sufficiently informed of the Merits of the Case, and the Applicants are delayed in obtaining Assistance.

Also, to the Neglect of the Masters and Wardens of Lodges in the London District to sign their Names in the Book kept at the Grand Secretary's Office for that Purpose.

It was thereupon RESOLVED—That the Lodges be admonished strictly to attend to the Laws of the Grand Lodge, relative to the Recommendations attached to Petitions of Relief, as the same are set forth in the Book of Constitutions under the Head of Lodge of Benevolence.

RESOLVED,—That the Masters and Wardens of Lodges in the London District do, within One Month after their Appointment to Office, sign their Names in the Book at the Grand Secretary's Office. In Conformity with the Clause 10, page 80, of the Book of Constitutions, which has of late (probably through inadvertence) been much neglected,—as the Grand Lodge will, after this Notice, be compelled to deal with any future Neglect, as a Breach of Masonic Law.

The Board of Finance reported the Amount of Receipts and Disbursements of the last Quarter.

The following Boards were then appointed for the ensuing Twelve Months:—
